

Uniform guidelines

March 01, 2023

Geisinger

Why should all Geisinger family members dress professionally?

We all represent Geisinger. How we appear sends a powerful message to our patients that we take pride in what we do: serve those who need our care. Standard uniform colors help our patients identify who's tending to their needs.

Table of contents

Lab coat and scrub jacket	3
Registered nurse (RN)	4
Pediatric registered nurse (RN)	5
RN student	6
Licensed practical nurse (LPN).....	7
Pediatric licensed practical nurse (LPN)	8
Patient language navigator.....	9
Care support assistant	10
Physical therapy/occupational therapy	11
Radiology/imaging	12
First impression/frontline staff	13
Laboratory medicine.....	14
MyCode staff.....	15
Pharmacy technician.....	16
Respiratory care	17
Environmental services	18
Approved embroidery and uniform vendors.....	19

Lab coat and scrub jacket uniform guidelines

Lab coats must be white.

Scrub jackets must be the same color as primary uniform.

- Logo name and credentials are permitted on lab coats
- Scrub jackets feature logo only

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Scrub jackets must be the same color as primary uniform.

Registered nurse (RN) uniform guidelines

Primary color: Pewter gray

Secondary color: White

Those in uniform scrubs have the option of wearing:

- Primary color for both top and pant.
- Primary color for top and secondary color for pant.
- Primary color for pant and secondary color for top.
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white lab coats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Pediatric registered nurse (RN) uniform guidelines

Primary color: Pewter gray

Secondary color: Ceil blue

Those in uniform scrubs have the option of wearing:

- Primary color for both top and pant.
- Primary color for top and secondary color for pant.
- Primary color for pant and secondary color for top.
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white labcoats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

RN student uniform guidelines

Primary color: Pewter gray

Secondary color: Black

Those in uniform scrubs have the option of wearing:

- Primary color for both top and pant.
- Primary color for top and secondary color for pant.
- Primary color for pant and secondary color for top.
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white labcoats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Licensed practical nurse (LPN) uniform guidelines

Primary color: Royal blue

Secondary color: White

Those in uniform scrubs have the option of wearing:

- Primary color for both top and pant.
- Primary color for top and secondary color for pant.
- Primary color for pant and secondary color for top.
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white labcoats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Pediatric licensed practical nurse (LPN) uniform guidelines

Primary color: Royal blue

Secondary color: Ceil blue

Those in uniform scrubs have the option of wearing:

- Primary color for both top and pant.
- Primary color for top and secondary color for pant.
- Primary color for pant and secondary color for top
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white labcoats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Patient language navigator uniform guidelines

Primary color: Olive

- Patient language navigators are required to wear the olive color for both top and pant.
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white lab coats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Care support assistant uniform guidelines

Primary color: Purple polo shirt

This expectation includes nonclinical administrative or frontline staff who have direct contact with patients.

- Purple as the color for shirts; black as the color for sweaters or jackets; and employees' choice of business-appropriate black bottoms (pants or skirts).
- A purple polo shirt is required.
- Employee's choice of black pants or skirt is required.
- Black sweaters or jackets are optional.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Physical therapy/occupational therapy uniform guidelines

Primary color: Teal

- Physical therapy/occupational therapy employees are required to wear the teal color for both top and pant.
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white lab coats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Radiology/imaging uniform guidelines

Primary color: Caribbean blue
Secondary color: Black

Those in uniform scrubs have the option of wearing:

- Primary color for both top and pant.
- Primary color for top and secondary color for pant.
- Primary color for pant and secondary color for top
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white labcoats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

First impression/frontline staff uniform guidelines

First impression/frontline staff, who are typically patient access representatives and other nonclinical administrative or frontline staff who have direct contact with patients.

What is your color?

- Light blue as the color for shirts; black as the color for sweaters or jackets; and employees' choice of business-appropriate black bottoms (pants or skirts).
- A blue shirt of choice is required.
- Employees' choice of black pants or skirts is required.
- Black sweaters and jackets are optional.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Laboratory medicine uniform guidelines

Primary color: Red

Secondary color: Black

Those in uniform scrubs have the option of wearing:

- Primary color for both top and pant.
- Primary color for top and secondary color for pant.
- Primary color for pant and secondary color for top.
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white labcoats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

MyCode staff uniform guidelines

MyCode staff, who are typically patient access representatives and other nonclinical administrative or frontline staff who have direct contact with patients.

What is your color?

- Khaki as the color for shirts; black as the color for sweaters or jackets; and employees' choice of business-appropriate black bottoms (pants or skirts).
- A khaki shirt of choice is required.
- Employees' choice of black pants or skirts is required.
- Black sweaters and jackets are optional.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Pharmacy technician uniform guidelines

Primary color: Hunter green

- Pharmacy technicians are required to wear the hunter green color for both top and pant.
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white labcoats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Respiratory care uniform guidelines

Primary color: Navy blue

Secondary color: Khaki

Those in uniform scrubs have the option of wearing:

- Primary color for both top and pant.
- Primary color for top and secondary color for pant.
- Primary color for pant and secondary color for top.
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white labcoats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.

Environmental services uniform guidelines

Primary color: Wine

Those in uniform scrubs have the option of wearing:

- Environmental services employees are required to wear the wine color for both top and pant.
- Only certain positions are eligible to wear white labcoats. Check with your manager before ordering.

For more information on uniforms and how to order them, review our approved vendor list.